

Public Workshop on Forest Project Protocol White Papers
Sierra Hearing Room
California EPA, Corner of 10th and 'I' Streets
Downtown Sacramento
Thursday, March 10, 2011
1:00 PM – 5:00 PM

AGENDA

- 1:00 PM Introduction
Derik Broekhoff, Vice President, Climate Action Reserve
- Welcome & Introductions
  - Overview of White Paper Development & Process
- 1:15 Carbon Accounting and Management for Lying Deadwood
- Summary of Paper
  - Discussion of Findings and Their Implications
- 2:00 Accounting for Carbon in Soils
- Summary of Paper
  - Discussion of Findings and Their Implications
- 2:45 Break
- 3:00 Carbon Dynamic Associated with Even-Aged Management
- Summary of Paper
  - Discussion of Findings and Their Implications
- 3:45 Sustainable Forest Management Certification
- Summary of Paper
  - Discussion of Findings and Their Implications
- 4:30 Final Q&A
- 5:00 Adjourn

Purpose of Workshop: To bring stakeholders, the public, and Reserve staff together to discuss and explore the implications of four white papers covering various elements of forest carbon offset accounting and forest management. This public workshop and other public comments will inform the Reserve's deliberations on whether to undertake further revisions to the Forest Project Protocol.